An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Crawford on August 22, 2005.

In claim 1, line 4, before "adding" the word - - then - - has been inserted. In line 5, "with which" has been deleted. Further in line 5, after "energy" the phrase - - of which with - - has been inserted.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: It is well-known to produce lithium aluminum hydride by reacting lithium hydride with an aluminum halide in diethyl ether or tetrahydrofuran as the solvent. (See col. 1, line 40 to col. 2, line 5 of Pautard-Cooper et al (US 6,444,190), and applicants' admitted prior art (page 1, line 7 to page 2, line 12 of the specification).) However there is no teaching, disclosure or suggestion in Pautard-Cooper et al or applicants' admitted prior art to carry out the reaction in diethyl ether, and then add a solvent the complexing energy of which with lithium aluminum hydride is greater than the complexing energy of diethyl ether with lithium aluminum hydride (such as tetrahydrofuran), and remove diethyl ether by distillation to yield the lithium aluminum hydride solution, as required by applicants' claims. Nor would there be any motivation from the prior art to do so. Applicants' specification discloses the disadvantages of carrying out the synthesis in THF or diethyl ether alone on page 1, line 22 to page 2, line 12, and discloses the advantages of applicants' claimed process on page 4, lines 13-19.)

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
